COVID-19 and Queensland: Will things ever go back to normal?

TUESDAY 24 AUGUST | 3.30PM–5PM | VIA ZOOM VIDEO WEBINAR

COVID-19 has led to unprecedented challenges. Despite a remarkable response in controlling COVID-19 transmission in Australia, the discovery of new variants with greater transmissibility, combined with high rates of infection worldwide continues to cause concern. In this session, we review the past, present and future of the COVID-19 pandemic.
